

Miss. Stacey's Preschool

August 24, 2009 to September 4, 2009

Themes for the Week: Classroom Update:

This week we will be welcoming students to school and learning how the school day will progress. I know this is something students need to learn and we will take our time feeling our way around and getting used to the school and each other.

- ☺ Welcome to my Preschool classroom where learning is fun and playing is learning.
- ☺ I will try to post the newsletters on the Emerald Hill Preschool page in order to help save trees and so you can access it if you lose the paper version.

Upcoming Events:

- ☺ This is where events happening in the class will be posted so keep an eye on this section to find out what is happening in Preschool.

Books:

- 📖 Biscuit Goes to School
