Board Training & Development

Board Development: Training Opportunities Specific to Your Board

The VSBA offers individualized professional development activities designed for Virginia school boards. In addition to custom training, the following topics are offered by the VSBA:

- Governance: Understanding the Roles and Responsibilities of the Leadership Team
- Communication: Developing Systems of Communicating with Board, Superintendent, and Staff
- Operations: Establishing Board Norms and Protocols (The Way We Do Business)
- Superintendent's Evaluation: Implementing the Superintendent's Evaluation to Meet VDOE Guidelines
- Board Evaluation: Establishing Procedures and Norms to Garner Student Achievement
- Media Relations: Optimizing Media Relationships to Proactively Generate Press Coverage
- Communications Planning: Developing & Implementing a Division-Wide Communications Program
- Strategic Planning: Developing and Implementing Focused Plans of Action
- Working Through Conflict
- Data Driven Decision Making

This training is offered at the VSBA office in Charlottesville at a date that is convenient for your board. It is imperative that all members of the school board team be present for this training to take place.

Participants in VSBA Board Development sessions receive VSBA Academy credit.
